

Jenny's Place

words: Jenny Evans, music: Franz Bartsch

When you're alone and nothing's right,
I'll help you through.
Just think of me and come on home.
I know a place where you can stay.
Just shut the world outside
And come with me,
I'll sing away the hurt.

REFRAIN

In Jenny's Place the cares of the day disappear.
In Jenny's Place you'll find someone to lend an ear.
In Jenny's Place we'll make it good to feel bad.
Feel the love that you once knew
And I'll make it come true.

Each song I sing, I sing for you,
So stay a while.
I'll build a dream, a fantasy.
A man like you, always a loner,
Someone who plays with fire
Will soon get burnt.
I'll kiss away the hurt.

Refrain: In Jenny's Place the cares of the day disappear
In Jenny's Place you'll find someone to lend an ear.
In Jenny's Place we'll make it good to feel bad.
Feel the love that you once knew
And I'll make it come true.

When you're alone and nothing's right,
I'll help you through.
Just think of me and come on home
and come on home to Jenny's Place
